Collection Envelopes

Collection envelopes will no longer be mailed to the homes, but will be made available for pick-up in church. As you exit, please stop by the tables to the left, by the holy water dispenser, to retrieve yours. For anyone who is unable to pick them up, please contact the office.

December 19, 2021
4th Sunday of Advent

"For behold, when the voice of your greeting came to my ears, the babe in my womb leaped for joy." (Luke 1:44)

When you hear the scripture readings and Gospel reading at Mass, do you "leap for joy?" If not, don't blame the lecturer or priest, rather look inside yourself. What are you doing to grow in friendship with Jesus? How do you prepare for Mass each week? Or, do you just show up and expect to be entertained? As the Body of Christ, we are called to be active participants, not just passive observers.

December 19, 2021

Fourth Sunday of Advent

Each of us knows, in a way perhaps unique to ourselves, what it is to feel alone. Luke tells us this week that Mary "went with haste" to visit her cousin Elizabeth. Did Mary feel alone with the burden of the Annunciation? Did she have a need to confide in someone? Did she ask herself who will believe what the angel had told her and what she had consented to do? For many people, the atmosphere of Christmas preparations intensifies feelings of loneliness. That sense of Mary's loneliness makes us echo the Magnificat. God did wonderful things for her and for Elizabeth...and for us too. Do you know someone who seeks the companionship of a faith family, as Mary sought the companionship of Elizabeth? Do you know someone who needs the comfort of the Magnificat... that in our need, God also cares for us? Are you uncomfortable inviting them to the Catholic Faith? Then invite them to ask questions at an RCIA inquiry session where they will learn more about the Catholic Faith. No commitments are required - just inquiries. For more information, contact the Parish Office.

Lectio Divina Scripture Sharing

You are invited to share scripture with a small group of people on Monday mornings 11 a.m. – 11:30 a.m. We reflect and share on the Gospel of that day. It is an investment of only one-half hour of your time, and we can assure you that the fruits of that one-half hour will be abundant. Learning About the Mass continued...

The Gospel

After the 2nd reading, we stand to listen to the Gospel. There is special reverence given during the reading of the Gospel.

Standing - shows reverence as we are welcoming the Lord Jesus who is about to be proclaimed in the Gospel. While the entire Bible is inspired by God, the Gospels (the books of Matthew, Mark, Luke & John) have a special place because they are our main source for the life and teaching of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior.

Alleluia - Even before we hear the Gospel, we stand and sing the "Alleluia." It is found in the beginning and ending of many Psalms and the Angels sing "Alleluia" in heaven to praise God (Rev. 19:1-9). "Alleluia" is a Hebrew expression of joy meaning "Praise the Lord".

Procession - During the Alleluia, the priest or deacon begin to process in the sanctuary, taking the Book of the Gospels from the altar to the lectern. To prepare himself for the sacred task of reading the Gospel, the priest quietly prays at the altar "Cleanse my heart and my lips, almighty God, that I may worthily proclaim your holy Gospel." If the deacon is reading the Gospel the priest says a similar prayer for him at the beginning of the procession.

Sign of the Cross - After the priest says "A reading from the Holy Gospel according to.... (Matthew, Mark, Luke or John)" We respond, "Glory to you, O Lord." And we make the sign of the cross 3 times, once on our forehead, once on our lips, and once on our heart. In doing this we are asking that his Word in the Gospel always stay on our minds, our lips and in our hearts.

The Church teaches "when the Sacred Scriptures are read in the Church, God himself speaks to his people, and Christ, present in his own word proclaims the Gospel." Jesus Christ speaks personally to each one of us through the divinely inspired words in the Gospel.

Spiritual Adoption Program

The Office of Catechesis would like to connect our Parishioners and Catechesis families through the gift of prayer. Raising children in faith takes a lot of spiritual support. If you do not currently have a child in the Catechesis program but feel that you could pray daily for a family that does, would you consider spiritually adopting a catechesis family to keep in daily prayer? If this sounds like something you might be interested in please contact the Office of Catechesis, stjohnpcl@gmail.com, 732-968-2621 ext 13.

Year of The Family – Family Album

As we celebrate the Year "Amoris Laetitia Family," the diocesan Office of Communications and Public Relations is compiling a digital family photo album. We invite you to share a photo of your family – a photo of your domestic church by which our local Church of Metuchen is constantly enriched. Please consider sharing your family's photo with us by sending your photo to: communications@diometuchen.org so we can together bear witness to the love of God through our "family of families."
