Give the Gift of Faith

Churches are dependent upon the generosity of others to fulfill their mission of spreading the Good News as mandated by Christ on the day of his Ascension. To perpetuate our church's mission in our area, please consider putting St. John the Evangelist Church in your will.

Dear Parishioners,

The Holy Week invites us to prepare for our greatest Christian Festivity in the liturgical year. It is not Christmas or Palm Sunday or Pentecost but EASTER. Easter is the feast that gives meaning to all the others.

I hope to see many of you in Church on Palm Sunday, Holy Thursday, Good Friday and during the Easter Masses.

Happy Easter to all of you,
Fr. Alphonsus Kariuki

Basket Donations for Tricky Tray

St. Johns is planning its first Tricky Tray in Fall 2022 as a fundraiser for the parish. We are currently looking for donations of new or gently used baskets and ribbon to help package gifts. Donations can be left in the vestibule under the choir loft steps.

What is a Tricky Tray?

It is a fund raising event where guests buy tickets and place them in a container next to the item they would like to win. Prizes can be a single item or a group of items based on a theme (grill, TV, baking basket, child's bedroom basket, etc). Once everyone has had the opportunity to place their tickets in containers by the prizes, the drawing for the prizes begins. If your ticket number matches the winning number drawn for the prize, you win that prize. If anyone is interested in joining the committee planning the event, please contact Kate Guzzi via text: (732) 977-2233.

*"...For his sake I have accepted the loss of all things and I consider them so much rubbish, that I may gain Christ..."
(PHILIPPIANS 3:8)*

The first commandment says that we should not put other gods before the Lord. Sharing all of our gifts - our time in prayer, our talent in charitable works and our treasure to support the Church helps us keep God first in everything. It helps us from putting other gods before God. It helps us from becoming a slave to our possessions. It helps us to use our gifts for the glory of God and not for the glory of ourselves.

Are you being called to the Diaconate?

The Diocese is looking for men who are interested in becoming Permanent Deacons. A new diaconate formation class is about to begin. Applications for that class will be accepted near the end of this summer; prior to applying, interested men must attend an Information Meeting. A General Information Meeting will be held at the St. John Neumann Pastoral Center in Piscataway on Tuesday, March 29 at 7 p.m. and again on Saturday, April 9 at 10 a.m. If you are between the ages of 35 and 60, and you believe you are being called to this ministry, you, your wife and your pastor are cordially invited to attend one of these meetings. If you have any questions, or wish to advise that you will attend, please contact the Diocesan Diaconate Office at (732) 562-2457 or diaconate@diometuchen.org.

The Liturgy of the Eucharist

Agnus Dei: The Fraction, Commingling and "Lamb of God"

After the Rite of peace, the priest breaks the Eucharistic host in a symbolic action known as the fraction or breaking of the bread. To the ancient Jewish people "the breaking of the bread" was a ritual at the start of a meal in which the head of the home took bread, recited a blessing, and broke the bread to share with those who were present. Four times in the Gospels we hear of Jesus breaking bread and in Acts it is referenced as a main sign of Christian living for the early Church. When the priest breaks the Eucharistic host in the Mass, the ritual brings to mind the grand tradition of breaking of the bread, from the Old Testament Jewish people to Jesus' practice, to the Apostles and the early church, now down to present day.

After breaking the host, the priest places a small piece into the chalice while quietly saying, "May this mingling of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ bring eternal life to us who receive it." This ritual is known as the Commingling.

In Holy Communion we receive the whole Christ – His Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity. Even if we only receive in the form of the Consecrated Host or Precious Blood, no matter how small a piece it is ALL of Jesus - Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity.

While the priest performs the rite of breaking the host and the commingling, the people sing or say the Agnus Dei – Latin for Lamb of God. The New Testament reveals Jesus as the New Passover Lamb who was sacrificed for our sake – to save us from our sins. The words of the Lamb of God come most directly from John the Baptist who cried "Behold, the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!" The book of Revelation also refers to Jesus as the Lamb who was slain. We join the chorus of heaven and earth in worshiping the Lamb when we recite the Agnus Dei in the Mass.
